6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 JOSEPH ANTHONY MCDANIELS,

12 Defendant.

Case No. MJ12-317*SEALED*

DETENTION ORDER

13 Offense charged:

14 Interstate Transportation for the Purpose of Prostitution.

15 Date of Detention Hearing: June 19, 2012.

16 The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f),
17 and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth,
18 finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will 19 reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person
20 and the community.

21 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

22 Defendant has a criminal history going back to 1988 when he moved to Western 23 Washington. He has had numerous contacts with law enforcement, has convictions for

1 assaultive conduct, and convictions for first degree robbery in 1995 for which he received a
2 sentence of nearly 200 months. He has failed to appear at least once in the past and a bench
3 warrant for his arrest was issued. After his release from prison for that sentence, defendant has 4 continued to have contact with law enforcement. Last year, he was charged with in state court
5 with offenses that are similar to the charge before the court and was convicted of the lesser of 6 assault. He now faces new charges allegedly occurring after his conviction in state court. These 7 new charges were allegedly committed while defendant was on state supervision. Although 8 defendant states he has lived in Washington for years, he did not provide any information about 9 his residence, or how long he has lived there. The government argued defendant's residence was 10 unknown, that he has lived in multiple places including taking hotel rooms. Defendant also 11 provided no information about his employment or financial status, health, and drug or alcohol
12 use.

13 It is therefore ORDERED:

14 (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the 15 Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable,
16 from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

17 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 18 counsel;

19 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 20 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined 21 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 22 connection with a court proceeding; and 23

1 (4) The Clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to
2 counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services
3 Officer.

4 DATED this 19th day of June, 2012.
